

Pinto Piga Seeds subcontracts production in various growing areas to well-known, reliable growers. Production is supervised by over 22 full-time agronomists, each one specialized in particular crops. Our production groups provide technical advice and quality control to growers. Working with Pinto Piga Seeds guarantees that you will obtain reliability and the highest possible seed quality at a reasonable price.

MISSION

Our mission is to produce quality seeds, in close collaboration with our staff. For this, we face the future with an entrepreneurial attitude, always looking to new opportunities for development and growth.

VIEW

Our intention is to remain in time beyond our founders, to have a committed team, capable and impregnated with our culture, which ensures the success of the organization, collaborators, and the agricultural environment where it operates.
